

Great Fire of London

Statutory Curriculum content

The old St Paul's Cathedral on fire during the Great Fire Of London

As Scientists we will

- Find out about the features of Autumn and Winter
- Learn which months are in each of these seasons
- describe how day length varies between two seasons
- Make more detailed comparisons between the two seasons
- Practise taking simple measurements and recording information

As Computer scientists we will

- Begin to learn basic computer processes such as logging on, opening and closing applications and saving and locating files
- Explore different ways of presenting information using different devices including I-pads and laptops
- Compare the use of different software packages to produce pictures.
- Investigate different techniques that can be utilised using different software packages.

As Historians we will learn about

- Explain how we know about the Great Fire of London from a variety of primary sources.
- Show awareness of how London has changed, including its buildings, people and transport.
- Write a report about the Great Fire of London.

As Artists we will

- Look at different artists.
- Investigate how we can mix a range of secondary and tertiary colours.